

I am writing to protest the forced removal of wireless internet antennae from Continental Airlines Presidents Club (or any private club). I find it extremely unfair that a club that I pay annual dues to, and whom pays rent for space in an airport, cannot continue to provide free wireless internet service for me when I am in the club.